Your hostess, Donna Taylor, welcomes you to The Gazebo Inn. Experience a classic Vermont B&B located in the foothills of The Green Mountains. Cozy elegance and true New England style are found at this 1860s National Historic Register home.

The two acres of private grounds provide vintage trees, flowering perennial gardens, old-fashioned glider swing, and Victorian gazebo. Each morning a sumptuous– but healthy– Vermont breakfast is served along with take-away goodies for your day’s enjoyment. Each afternoon and evening an array of refreshments are offered.

Stroll into town to enjoy fine dining, the Brandon Museum, famed folk artist Warren Kimble’s art gallery, the celebrated Brandon Artists Guild, quaint shops, The Brandon Town Players, summer concerts, farmers’ market and parks with views of Brandon’s roaring waterfalls.

Experience seasonal celebrations such as the state’s largest July 4th Parade, The Great Brandon Auction and The Leaf People Festival. Minutes away are seasonal fun activities such as swimming and golfing as well as hiking, biking, cross country skiing, snow shoeing and berry picking in the National Forest.

This classic Greek Revival period home is decorated throughout with warm Victorian decor including fine period pieces and original art.

The common rooms with their original wide-board pumpkin pine floors include the parlor, library, reading alcove, and screened porch. The floor-to-ceiling windows allow guests to enjoy viewing the various gardens and the many birds. Our library has a range of books and games as well as digital TV with DVD capability. Our Vermont Castings wood stove is there to enjoy in the winter and on cool evenings.

Guest rooms are distinctively decorated to reflect the period, character, and charm of this historic home. They all include private baths, AC, high-end pressed linens, featherbeds, down comforters, as well as many personal amenities (including robes and hair dryers). Room and concierge service is standard.

Pictured above is the spacious Cinnamon Silk Suite with its queen bed and twin day bed. This guest room beckons you to choose a book from the well-stocked bookshelves or to write a Gazebo Inn postcard at its unique maple folk-designed desk.

The eye is delighted by The Satin Plum Room’s various tones of plum. The combination of lace and satin grace this room which includes a brass double bed, mahogany tables, delicate Victorian chairs and an original John Derian decoupage.

Everything is coming up roses in the dainty Rose Velvet Room (double/twin). Delight in the classic rose-patterned broadloom and the Laura Ashley linens. A museum quality Victorian chair and velvet draperies complete the palette of this petite retreat.

The Sheer Lilac Room greets you at every turn with hues of lilac in this exquisitely appointed suite with its own private staircase. The white sleigh queen bed, sheer lilac curtains, lilac carpet, custom-designed rich velvet chairs are further enhanced by original oil paintings both in the bedroom and in the dressing room.
